This Tuesday December 9th - Arms Full of Sound

Embark on a musical journey that carries you to far away places with Paul Needler, aka Arms Full of Sound, as your tour guide. Using a combination of Virtual Synth, Analog Mono Synth and Poly Synth (plus a few surprises) an ambient travelogue will be created. The vision of Arms Full of Sound stems from Paul's study of early ambient music. Join him on his next journey as he plays songs from the albums "Pieces of a Larger Experiment" and his latest "Minework in G".

Between Sets CD - "Bleed" by Jeff Pearce
Melancholic yet blissful, Pearce's beautiful, tonal soundscapes are created solely on electric guitar and rich, realtime processing.

(Stop by the mixing desk to see the "incandescent" cover image.)
