

Tuesday December 7th • Arms Full Of Sound

Arms Full Of Sound

Paul Needler aka Arms Full Of Sound, performed at the first PiNG at the Gladstone Hotel (in the Melody Bar) & will be the last performer in our series there - as he presents his Journey To Ambienta - Part 2. Here's what's in store, in Paul's own words...

"Since September, we have all been enjoying our stay on the Journey To Ambienta. It is now time to return from that strange place. On December 7, Arms Full of Sound will help you find your way home. By using the synthesizer cockpit now known as the Synthitone, you will be returned safely while traveling a musical journey of improvised ambient soundscape. Analog and digital synthesizers make up the sound that will transport you into new dimensions in music. Strange, pulsing visuals from the Xandon archives will truly show you what music can be. Join Arms Full Of Sound for the return journey."

Set one: Rhythmic Universe Set two: Journey's End

Between Sets CD • Fluidities by Jonathan Hughes (Foundry)

Last week's show was so full of great mini-sets that we had no time to feature Fluidities so we'll try again... Between sets we'll be spinning various combinations of pieces from this unique 2 CD set on the Ballroom's dual CD player. Fluidities was created so that any piece on the CDs could be played alone or in combination with any other track from the album. The tracks are by Hughes and 14 other artists like: Tetsu Inoue, Ian Boddy, Saul Stokes, dreamSTATE, Interstitial, Dean Santomieri and Michael Bentley... Available at ping things... Complete details here